Most Notable Freedom of Press Now Apparent
in Germany

POWER OF SUGGESTION

May Be Expected to Influence
Public Opinions in Ally Nations

Berlin, May 16.—The most notable relaxation of the censor shown since the war began is now apparent in relation to "peace talk" in the newspapers and in press telegrams being sent outside of Germany.

The general tenor of the peace arguments is that the people of the belligerent countries are tired of the bloody strife and the enormous financial drain, and are ready to quit, if their governments consent.

In Germany the declaration is constantly heard that the German government stands ready and willing to open peace negotiations. The constant repetition of this statement, it is believed, is having considerable moral effect upon the peoples of the nations at war with Germany. It may eventually weld public opinion so strongly that the governments may be forced to listen to the voice of the public and heed it.

There is a strong disposition in some quarters to regard President Wilson as the logical mediator, although this has recently been weakened somewhat by the refusal of the United States to heed Germany's demand that the American government compel England to lighten her blockade against the German allies. Some newspapers express the opinion that the chance now awaits President Wilson to become one of the great international figures in history by making representations to bring to an end the greatest war in the history of mankind. Expressions, especially from members of the British government, that the allies will fight until Germany is crushed into the dust, are regarded here as the only obstacle which prevents President Wilson from making some sort of overtures to the belligerent governments. But in the

Easy Way to Get Rid of Itching

Don't worry any more about that itching skin-trouble. Just get a jar of resinol ointment and a cake of resinol soap at any drug store. With the resinol soap and warm water bathe the affected parts thoroughly, until they are free from crusts and the skin is softened. Dry very gently, spread on a thin layer of the resinol ointment, and cover with a light bandage—if necessary to protect the clothing. This should be done twice a day. Usually the distressing itching and burning stop with the first treatment, and the skin soon becomes clear and healthy again.

Choosing Your Shampoo Soap

If you select a soap that contains soothing, healing properties like the resinol balsams in resinol soap, you are not likely to have trouble with dandruff, loss of hair or itching scalp. Ideal for the youngsters' heads.

face of these the hope exists in the minds of the growing party of "pacifists" that the American executive will address himself to the warring powers in such a way as to gain their attention and that fighting may come to an end before the end of another six months of warfare.

There seems to be a strong resentment in some sections of the governments opposed to Germany against peaceful intervention on the part of the pope. This may be due to the fact that Germany and Austria-Hungary are closer to the Vatican than England, France and Russia, or it might be inspired by other political considerations, but the fact remains that it does exist very strongly.

Built like —"The Deacon's One-Hoss Shay"

"THE best Pneumatic Tire is only as strong as its weakest part. Strengthening its strongest parts is as useless as putting a fifth wheel on a wagon."

Yet this is often done to provide "selling-feature" and "Talking Point."

The weakest part of every Pneumatic Tire is its Walls or Sides, not its Tread—its Cotton Fabric or "Stocking," not its Rubber "Sole."

No price would be too high to pay for a material that, replacing Cotton in the Walls of Pneumatic Tires, would last as long as the Goodrich Rubber Tread could be made to wear.

Neither Silk, nor Linen, nor any other known fabric, yet discovered is so good, for this purpose, as Cotton—and choice long-fibred Cotton is the best material that money can buy for Tire Fabric.

"WE use nothing less in Goodrich Tires, and test every foot of it up to 200 lbs. to the Square Inch, before we percolate it with the most adhesive Rubber Compound ever made for this purpose."

We then shape this rubberized Long-Fibred Fabric into Tires, with scrupulous care to have the tension on each square inch of fabric precisely the same.

That tension is controlled by a machine as sensitive as the eye, and infinitely more precise than the handwork of the most skilled Operative could make it.

To do this work we have the most highly trained men in the Rubber Industry—trained in the Precision that practice and our 45-year EXPERIENCE make perfect.

"NO Tire Manufacturer, if he received a price of $200 per Tire, could put better Fabric into the Walls of his Tires, use greater care, more sensitively adjusted Tension devices, or more adhesive Rubber between each layer of fabric."

Because we know the vital importance of THE BEST in this part of the Tire, and use it there unsparingly.

But,—notwithstanding all this,—the FABRIC is the part of the Tire which goes first.

Because the sides of the Tire do most of the work in running—bending and stretching a million times an hour, in scores of different directions.

This bending of the sides causes Friction between the layers of Canvas working against each other,—Friction causes Heat—the Heat over-cures and dries out the Rubber Adhesive between layers, which then separate from each other, in spots, the threads weakening or wearing out chafing against each other.

Then you have, in due time, the incipient blow-out, or other form of Tire-Death.

"PUT more layers of Fabric than we do in the walls, to strengthen them, and the friction increases, with faster deterioration of the Rubber through the greater heat engendered."

Put fewer layers, and the walls would not be strong enough to carry the load of the Car.

So there you are—Mr. Tire-User!

Why put MORE layers of Fabric in the Walls of the Tire than will properly carry the load, when each additional layer is an additional developer of that FRICITION-HEAT which is to Tires what Old Age is to Man?

"THAT is the reason we build what have built for more than a year, in the Goodrich Tire, a carefully BALANCED Tire, emulating the famous example of "The Deacon's One-Hoss Shay" in which "the Sills were just as strong as the Thills and the Thills as strong as the floor."

The Maximum Fabric efficiency and THEN,—the rest of the Tire built up to that.

Result.—The most RESILIENT Tire that can be made with Fabric Walls,—at the fairest price per Mile of performance.

Why pay more for any Tire?
